DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 1-6,10-18,22-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being fully met by Yourlo.

See especially Cols. 11-14; Figs. 4,15,17.

With regard to Applicant's arguments, Yourlo states that the "pieces of music 100 are input into the servers 202" (Col. 4) which inherently means the pieces of music are in digital audio data form. It is well known to one of ordinary skill in the art that this means the music pieces are being sampled and recorded in a file, meeting the limitation in the present claim. A "sample time signal" or tempo data 404 is derived as shown in Fig. 4. Yourlo further discloses sorting and matching songs based on a time signal or tempo (Col. 10 line 55 – Col. 11 line 9).

Claims 7-9,19-21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jeffrey Donels whose telephone number is 571-272-2061. The examiner can normally be reached on 9 hour days, first Friday off.
